Michael

460 CZK

Mezcal, St Thomas syrup, Martini Rosso, Averna, Chocolate bitters

God created Angels along with the rest of the world and Archangel Michael is probably the most famous of all Angels.

He was the first to go up against Lucifer. After God Himself and the Virgin Mary, Michael is the third most frequently mentioned in prayers.

By drinking this cocktail, you will have the power of Archangel and will feel part of the angels!

Raphael

345 CZK

Aged 4 weeks in an oak barrel

Ungava gin, Lillet blanc, Yellow Chartreuse, Cinamon syrup

In Religious texts there is a story of Tobit, who lost his sight and was left in such despair that he begged God to let him die. In the same evening a woman named Sarah asked him for death too, because she had lost seven husbands in a row. Each of them died on their wedding night.

Raphael healed Tobit's blindness, removed the demon's curse from Sara and introduced her to Tobit's son, Tobias. They fell in love instantly and got married. Raphael is known as a matchmaker and also as someone with a great sense of humour.

This cocktail will be a perfect match for those who are in love and those who are not, just enjoy!

Jophiel

285 CZK

El dorado 12 yo, Martini Rosso, Grand Marnier, Grenadine, Orange Bitters

Archangel Jophiel helps people resort to pleasant thoughts, which enrich their souls. His name means "Beauty of God".

Jophiel is described as a leader who commanded 53 legions of angels. Today Jophiel is the patron saint of artists and intellectuals, and he is credited for gifting them with new ideas, which makes him very popular.

Mirror, mirror on the wall who is the prettiest of them all?
